Who We're Looking For

Editorial Team

Staff writers are part of our online database where we share and assign stories. These writers are promised to be frequently published.

Contributing writers can email story ideas to globaljournalneu@gmail.com. If approved, our editors will work with these writers on publishing.

Design Team

Members of the design team work on the website, the print edition and all promotional materials for the club.

Marketing and Finance Team

Members of the marketing and finance team work on events, our social media accounts, as well as our budget.

How It Works

Database

Writers and editors work on stories via Google Docs.

Meetings

Teams meet twice a month (with the exception of Contributing writers).
